2011 USA Men's World University Games Team Notes

How They Got Here

Invitations to attend the 2011 USA Basketball Men's World University Games Team Training Camp were issued by the USA Basketball Men's Junior National Team Committee.

The 2011 USA Men's World University Games Team Training camp opened with 20 players on July 29, and 14 finalists for the team were named on July 31.

After six days of training overall, the official 12-member roster was announced on Aug. 3.

In addition to committee chair Jim Boeheim (Syracuse University), the committee includes NCAA appointees and collegiate head coaches Lorenzo Romar (University of Washington), Bruce Weber (University of Illinois) and Roy Williams (University of North Carolina), as well as athlete representative Jay Williams, a member of four USA Basketball squads, including the 2002 USA World Championship Team.

The committee also was responsible for selecting the USA coaching staff.

World University Games

The 2011 World University Games men's basketball competition will be held Aug. 13-22 in Shenzhen, China.

In all, 24 countries will compete in the international competition.

The USA has been slotted into Pool D, along with Finland, Hungary, Israel, Mexico and South Korea.

Group A includes Brazil, China, Czech Republic, Germany, Romania and United Arab Emirates. Group B teams include Australia, Canada, Hong Kong, Serbia, South Africa and Turkey. Playing in Group C are Japan, Lithuania, New Zealand, Phillipines, Russia and Ukraine.

The USA will open play against Mexico at 6 p.m. on Aug. 13 (all times listed are China Standard Time, which is +12 hours from Eastern Time) and will then play Hungary at 3:30 p.m. on Aug. 14; South Korea at 3:30 p.m. on Aug. 15; Finland at 6 p.m. on Aug. 17; and Israel at 3:30 p.m. on Aug. 18.

Following the preliminary round, the top two placed teams from each pool will advance to the medal quarterfinals, which will be contested on Aug. 20. The semifinals are scheduled for Aug. 21, and the finals will be played on Aug. 22.

The World University Games are held every other year and are organized by the International University Sports Federation (FISU).

The World University Games is a multi-sport competition open to men and women who are between the ages of 17 and 24 (born between January 1, 1987 and December 31, 1993), and is or has been within the past year, a student at a university.

The United States, which has claimed a medal in every World University Games since beginning play in 1965, has captured a record 13 golds, three silvers and three bronze medals in the 19 WUGs in which a USA Basketball squad has competed, and the U.S. owns a 131-8 record in the event.

Most recently, the USA men earned the bronze medal after finishing 6-1 and suffering a one-point loss to Russia in the semifinals.

Eighteen players who have represented the USA in the World University Games have gone on to compete in the Olympic Games, including: Ray Allen, Stacey Augmon, Charles Barkley, Larry Bird, Bill Bradley, Quinn Buckner, Tom Burleson, Ken Davis, Tim Duncan, Phil Hubbard, Allen Iverson, Mitch Kupchak, Karl Malone, Michael Redd, Mitch Richmond, Michael Silliman, Steve Smith and Jo Jo White.

Training Camp for the 2011 USA Basketball Men's World University Games Team began on July 29 with a total of 20 collegiate athletes. Fourteen finalists were named on July 31, and the team was announced on Aug. 3.

2011 USA Men's World University Games Team Training Notes

USA Alums

As an assistant coach for the 2009 U19 World Championship Team, USA head coach Matt Painter helped the U.S. squad post a perfect 9-0 record and capture the gold medal in New Zealand, marking the first time since 1991 that the USA men returned home from the U19 Worlds in possession of the title.

Assistant coach Brad Stevens also returns to USA Basketball after serving as a court coach during the 2010 USA U18 National Team training camp in San Antonio, Texas; while this summer marks Cuonzo Martin's first USA Basketball coaching assignment.

Four of the players possess prior USA Basketball experience. Scoop Jardine was a member of the USA Select Team that trained against the USA Men's National Team in 2010 in Las Vegas, Nev.

Ashton Gibbs and Darius Miller helped the USA to a gold medal and 9-0 record at the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship, and JaMychal Green was a member of the 2008 U.S. team that captured a 4-1 record and silver medal at the 2008 FIBA Americas U18 Championship.

Student Athletes

The roster features two players - Tim Abromaitis and Scoop Jardine - who graduated in 2011 with remaining eligibility, eight athletes from the class of 2012, one athlete who will graduate in 2013 - John Jenkins - and one player - Ray McCallum - who recently completed his freshman season and will graduate in 2014.

Seven NCAA conferences are represented on the roster, including three schools from the Big East Conference and the Southeastern Conference, two schools from the Big Ten Conference and one program apiece from the Big 12 Conference, the Big West Conference, Horizon League and Ivy League.

Conference Recognition

Eleven players earned individual recognition from their respective conferences following the 2010-11 season, including the Big East Scholar Athlete of the Year, Tim Abromaitis, and the Horizon League Newcomer of the Year, Ray McCallum.

Listing on their conference first teams were: Marcus Denmon (Big 12), Ashton Gibbs (Big East), JaMychal Green (SEC), John Jenkins (SEC), Orlando Johnson (Big West) and Greg Mangano (Ivy League).

Second team members included: Trevor Mbawke (Big Ten) and Ray McCallum (Horizon).

Third team selections were: Tim Abromaitis (Big East) and Draymond Green (Big Ten), and Scoop Jardine (Big East) was an honorable mention.

Tournament Time

The 2011 USA Men's World University Games Team will be full of NCAA experience.

Tim Abromaitis (Notre Dame) has appeared in three NCAA tournaments (2008, 2010, 2011), as have Marcus Denmon (Missouri, 2009, 2010, 2011), Ashton Gibbs (Pittsburgh, 2009, 2010, 2011) and Draymond Green (Michigan State, 2009, 2010, 2011).

Suiting up for two NCAA Tournaments have been: Scoop Jardine (Syracuse, 2010, 2011), John Jenkins (Vanderbilt, 2010, 2011), Orlando Johnson (UC Santa Barbara, 2010, 2011) and Darius Miller (Kentucky, 2010, 2011).

Trevor Mbakwe (Minnesota) competed in 2009.

Additionally, Jardine helped his team advance as far as the 2010 Sweet Sixteen.

Denmon (2009), Gibbs (2009) and Miller (2010) have played in the Elite Eight.

Final Four participants include: Draymond Green (2010) and Miller (2011), and Draymond Green went all the way to the championship game (2009).

The NCAA Tournament appearances are just as impressive among the coaching staff.

In seven seasons as a head coach, USA head mentor Matt Painter has taken his teams to six NCAA tournaments, including the Sweet Sixteen in 2009 and 2010.

USA assistant coach Brad Stevens has led Butler to five consecutive NCAA tourneys, reaching the NCAA Championship game in 2010 and 2011.

The USA fell to Russia in the semifinals of the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia, but rebounded with a win over Israel to take home the bronze medal.

Matt Painter

Head Coach • Purdue University

Purdue University head mentor Matt Painter, who previously assisted the USA to a gold medal in the 2009 FIBA U19 World Championship, was named head coach of the 2011 USA Men's World University Games Team on Jan. 20, 2011.

"It's always an honor to work with USA Basketball," Painter said. "My experience with the U19 team in 2009 is one that I value greatly. The goal of any USA Basketball team is to represent your country in a first-class fashion and win a gold medal, and I'm excited for the opportunity to pursue that goal in China this summer.

"It's going to be a great experience working with coaches whom I respect as much as Cuonzo Martin and Brad Stevens. They're hard-working, driven and passionate coaches, and they'll play a vital role on this team."

As an assistant coach for the 2009 USA U19 World Championship Team, Painter helped the U.S. squad post a perfect 9-0 record and capture the gold medal in New Zealand, marking the first time since 1991 that the USA men returned home from a U19 World Championship in possession of the title.

Having completed his sixth season as head coach at Purdue (2005-06 to present), Painter led the Boilermakers to a 26-8 record in 2010-11, including an NCAA Tournament win and a 16-0 record at home, marking just the second undefeated home slate in the history of Mackey Arena, and the first since 1968-69. The 16 home wins also tied the program record set in both 2006-07 and 2007-08, when Purdue went 16-1 on its home floor.

Overall, Painter's record at Purdue is 138-64 (.683 winning percentage).

Following his first year on the sidelines, Painter has produced five straight 20-win seasons, captured the 2009 Big Ten Tournament title, 2010 Big Ten regular season crown, made five NCAA Tournament appearances and advanced to the 2009 and 2010 NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

His exploits at Purdue have not gone unnoticed. A finalist for the 2008 Naismith Coach of the Year, the 2008 and 2010 Jim Phelan Coach of the Year and the 2008 Skip Prosser Man of the Year awards, Painter was a 2008 and 2009 United States

Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) Henry Iba Coach of the Year nominee. He also earned a pair of National Association of Basketball Coaches District Coach of the Year (2008, 2010) honors, collected the 2010 USBWA District V Coach of the Year award and has been named the Big Ten Coach of the Year three times (2008, 2010 and 2011).

Painter and the Boilermakers in 2009-10 tied the program's record for victories, finishing with a 29-6 slate, tied as the Big Ten regular season champs, made their second consecutive Sweet Sixteen appearance and finished ranked No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll.

In 2008-09, Painter led Purdue to a 27-10 record, the Big Ten Tournament title and an NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2008-09, finishing ranked No. 14 in the final ESPN/USA Today poll.

In 2007-08, Purdue's 25 wins were the most for the program since the 1997-98 season and the sixth most in school history. Painter led the Boilermakers to a 15-3 conference record, finishing one game out of first place, and to the NCAA Tournament where they won their 11th straight first round NCAA Tournament game. Purdue's home record was an impressive 16-1, including a perfect 9-0 mark in conference action, and posted three wins over teams ranked in the top 11.

In his second season at the helm of the Boilermakers (2006-07), Painter led Purdue back to the NCAA Tournament, where it advanced to the second round. Purdue finished the season 22-12, more than doubling its win total from the previous season.

Before being named head coach for Purdue, Painter joined Gene Keady's staff as an associate head coach during Keady's 25th and final season in 2004-05.

Painter was head mentor for one season at Southern Illinois University, compiling a 25-5 record and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2003-04. The Salukis were ranked as high as 15th in the Associated Press poll during that season, and Painter earned Missouri Valley Coach of the Year honors.

In a total of seven seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach, Painter owns a 163-69 record (.703 winning percentage).

He served as the top assistant under Bruce Weber at SIU from 1998-99 to 2002-03 before becoming head coach. In 2001-02, the Salukis finished 28-8 and made an NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance. In 2002-03 SIU claimed its second straight regular season conference title and made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Painter made three coaching stops before joining SIU. He coached one year each at Washington & Jefferson College (1993-94) and Barton College (1994-95) before moving to the Division I ranks, spending three years on the staff at Eastern Illinois University (1995-96 through 1997-98).

Painter played guard at Purdue from 1989-90 through 1992-93, totaling 276 assists. He was a team captain during the 1992-93 season when he was named All-Big Ten honorable mention. He helped lead the Boilermakers to three NCAA Tournament bids and one NIT appearance during his playing career.

Cuonzo Martin

Assistant Coach • University of Tennessee

Recently announced on March 28, 2011, as head coach at the University of Tennessee, Cuonzo Martin was named as a USA Basketball Men's World University Games Team assistant coach on Jan. 20, 2011.

"It's a great honor, and I'm very humbled by it," said Martin, who played alongside and served as an assistant coach for USA head coach Matt Painter at Purdue. "I'm very appreciative to be with Matt Painter again, he's a great friend of mine, and also Brad Stevens, who is also a friend and a great coach. I think it'll be a lot of fun. But, more important, to be able to represent my country like this, it's a great honor for me."

In the 2010-11 season, Martin led Missouri State University to a 26-9 record and its first Missouri Valley Conference regular season title, earning Missouri Valley Coach of the Year honors.

At the 2011 Final Four, Martin received the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year Award, presented annually to the top minority head coach in Division I men's basketball, and he also was a finalist for the 2011 Hugh Durham "Mid-Major" Coach of the Year Award.

Overall, in three seasons as head coach at Missouri State (2008-09 through 2010-11), Martin compiled a 61-48 record.

Following his first season, when the Bears went 11-20, Cuonzo orchestrated the fifth-best turnaround in NCAA Division I play after coaching his 2009-10 team to a 24-12 mark for a 13-win improvement. Further, Martin's team captured the 2010 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament crown. Additionally, the Bears collected 19 of their wins at home, tying Kansas for the best home record in NCAA Division I play last year.

Martin arrived at Missouri State after spending seven years (2000-01 through 2006-07) as an assistant coach and one (2007-08) as associate head coach at Purdue University under Gene Keady and Matt Painter. During Martin's time on the Purdue sidelines, the Boilermakers posted a 129-119 (.520) record and advanced to postseason play five times, including three NCAA Tournaments and a pair of National Invitational Tournaments.

A four-year letterwinner at Purdue (1992-95), the first two of which were played with Painter, Martin helped the Boilermakers to a 90-37 (.709) slate, three NCAA Tournaments, the 1992 NIT and a pair of Big Ten Conference titles.

Martin's junior season was Purdue's best during his four-year career on the hardwood. In 1993-94 he helped Purdue earn a 29-5 mark and the Big Ten crown as the squad advanced to the 1994 NCAA Elite Eight, the program's best finish since the 1979-80 squad placed third in the NCAA Tournament. As a senior Martin averaged 18.4 ppg. and was tabbed All-Big Ten first team as Purdue wrapped up a 25-7 record, earned the Big Ten title and advanced to the NCAA second round.

The Atlanta Hawks made Martin the 57th overall pick in the 1995 NBA Draft, and he played professional basketball for four years, including NBA stints with the Milwaukee Bucks and the Vancouver Grizzlies.

He also was the team captain and leading scorer with the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Hoops of the Continental Basketball Association for three seasons and was the leading scorer for Felize Scandone in Avellino, Italy, in 1997.

He spent four years playing professional basketball in the NBA, CBA and in Europe before returning to his alma mater in 2000.

Martin graduated from Lincoln High School in East St. Louis, Ill., and, led the Tigers to a pair of Illinois High School Athletics (IHSA) Class AA state championships. In 2007, he was honored as one of the 100 Legends of the IHSA Boys Basketball Tournament.

Brad Stevens

Assistant Coach • Butler University

Butler University's Brad Stevens was named as a USA Basketball Men's World University Games assistant coach on Jan. 20, 2011. He enters the assignment with previous experience as a court coach during the 2010 USA Men's U18 National Team training camp in San Antonio, Texas.

"I'm really excited to be a part of USA Basketball," said Stevens. "It's an honor to be asked to participate, to work with the USA Basketball staff and coach Martin, and to assist coach Painter in the World University Games."

Stevens, whose storied Cinderella run to the 2010 NCAA title game garnered national attention, completed his fourth season at the helm of the Butler Bulldogs in 2010-11, securing a 28-10 record and second consecutive trip to the NCAA title game.

In all, during his successful stint as head coach at Butler, Stevens owns a 102-21 record (.829 winning percentage), has made four NCAA Tournament appearances, captured four Horizon League regular season titles and three Horizon League Tournament crowns.

Stevens and his Bulldogs entered the 2010 NCAA Tournament as a No. 5 seed and rolled through the tournament before being stopped three points short of the title in a 61-59 loss to Duke in the championship game. Butler finished its most successful season in history with a 33-5 overall record, including a perfect 18-0 slate in the Horizon League for the regular season title and collected the Horizon League Tournament crown. The Bulldogs also assembled the longest winning streak in the nation heading into the NCAA title game with a school-record 25 straight victories. The 33 wins in 2009-10 also marked a school and Horizon League record, breaking the previous high-water mark of 30 set by Butler in 2007-08.

Stevens, who has been at the Butler helm since the 2007-08 season, earned in 2010 his second consecutive Horizon League Coach of the Year honor and was named 2010 NABC All-District 12 Coach following his undefeated regular season conference run.

In his first year, Stevens piloted the Bulldogs to a 30-4 slate, marking school and conference records for single-season victories, won the Horizon League regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA second round. In finishing with 30 victories, at 31 years of age, Stevens became the third-youngest NCAA Division I coach to achieve that mark.

After being slated to finish fifth in the league, Stevens in 2008-09 won his second Horizon League regular season title, earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 26-6 record. For his efforts, Stevens was named the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year and the Horizon League Coach of the Year.

Prior to being elevated to head coach, Stevens spent six years (2001-02 through 2006-07) as an assistant coach for the Bulldogs. During that time Butler posted a 131-61 (.682) record, captured at least a share of three Horizon League regular season titles, won a pair of Horizon League Tournaments and advanced to the 2007 and 2003 NCAA Sweet Sixteens and played in the 2006 and 2002 NIT.

He began his career at Butler in 2000-01 as coordinator of basketball operations.

Stevens earned a B.A. degree in economics from DePauw in 1999. He was a four-year member of the basketball team at DePauw, who earned the squad's "Coaches Award" in 1998-99.

USA Basketball Men's World University Games Team History (1965-2009)

TWENTY FIFTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 2009

Belgrade, Serbia

July 2-11, 2009

Despite stunning host and eventual gold medalist Serbia, the USA's quest for gold came up short by the slimmest of margins as a one-point loss to Russia in the semifinals prevented the Americans from playing for gold. Rebounding from the heart-breaking loss, the U.S. defeated Israel 91-80 to finish 6-1 and claim the bronze medal.

Averaging 90.1 points a game, the U.S. squad posted a tournament leading average margin of victory of 22.4 points per game, outrebounded its opponents by 14 boards a game, while shooting 48.5 percent from the field and limiting its foes to a chilly 36.0 percent.

Led by University of Wisconsin head coach Bo Ryan, the squad opened play with a lopsided 87-40 victory over Finland as Craig Brackins and Corey Fisher led four players in double digits with 12 points each.

The U.S. outgunned South Korea 113-76 to close preliminary play. The effort, which saw all 12 team members score, was paced by James Anderson and Quincy Pondexter with 14 points apiece.

Deon Thompson scored 17 points as the U.S. assured itself of a medal quarterfinals berth with a 108-77 thumping of Greece in second round action.

After playing its first three games in small community gyms, the U.S. moved to Belgrade Arena to face host Serbia in its final second round game. In an exciting finish to a game that featured 14 lead changes, the USA remained perfect after edging host Serbia 68-66 and Talor Battle scored a team-high 17 points.

Hitting a USA World University Games record 16 3-pointers, the U.S. took down Bulgaria 96-66 in the quarterfinals. Every U.S. player scored and Pondexter led the attack with 15 points.

In the semifinal game, the USA saw its gold medal hopes slip away in the waning minutes after Russia outscored the U.S. 20-9 in the final stanza, including a three to go ahead in the final 23.3 seconds, for the 69-68 win. Fisher and Robbie Hummel led the USA's scoring effort with 14 points each.

In what is often the hardest game to play, the Americans entered the bronze medal contest knowing that even though the gold was out of reach, no USA Basketball squad had ever returned home from the WUGs without a medal. They weren't going to be the first. Lazar Hayward paced the USA with 14 points as the USA, which never trailed in the final three quarters, saw four players score in double digits in the 91-80 bronze medal victory over Israel.

TWENTY THIRD WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 2005

*Izmir, Turkey
August 12-21, 2005*

With dominant, unselfish play, the USA finished with an unblemished 8-0 record to take home the gold medal at the 2005 World University Games in Izmir, Turkey.

Led by Villanova University head coach Jay Wright, the U.S. rolled through the preliminary round with a 5-0 record, its margin of victory never less than 10 points.

Opening with a 94-47 victory over Iran on Aug. 12, the squad was paced by 13 points from Mike Gansey. The USA then received a 23-point, nine-rebound outing from Craig Smith as it surpassed Slovakia 85-70. Seeing its closest margin of victory come on Aug. 14, Smith and Shelden Williams poured in 20 points apiece as the U.S. outscored Germany 14-5 in the game's final 3:40 to capture a 72-62 win.

Following a day off, the United States breezed past China 117-61 with the help of 24 points from Eric Hicks and 16 rebounds from Greg Brunner. Capping preliminary play with an 87-51 trouncing of the Czech Republic, the U.S. was paced by Williams and Randy Foye who accounted for 16 and 15 points, respectively.

After rolling past Australia 88-68 in the quarterfinals on Aug. 18 with the help of 18 points from Foye and 15 more from Gerry McNamara, the U.S. overcame a sluggish start to roar past Russia 120-80 in the semifinals to reach the gold medal game.

The USA's semifinal victory came thanks in part to the tandem of Foye and Williams, who scored 20 points each, while Williams' 10 rebounds produced his second double-double of the WUGs.

Meeting unbeaten Ukraine in the championship game, Smith led the gold medal charge with 16 points and Williams recorded 15-points, 14-rebounds as the U.S. earned an 85-70 win.

The USA averaged a tournament-best 93.5 ppg. and had four players average double digits, led by Williams' 14.9 ppg. Smith poured in a team second-best 13.9 ppg., Foye added 12.6 ppg. and Vincent Grier notched 11.1 ppg. Williams also led the team's rebounding effort with 9.3 rpg., while Brunner grabbed 5.8 rpg. and Smith took down 5.4 rpg. Grier nabbed a USA World University Games record 26 steals (3.3 spg.), Williams added 2.6 spg. and Foye 2.5 spg., and Williams rejected 2.3 bpg. and Matt Haryasz averaged a team second-best 1.3 bpg.

TWENTY FIRST WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 2001

*Beijing, China
August 22-31, 2001*

After falling to host China in the semifinal match of the 21st World University Games, the 2001 USA Basketball men's team rebounded to claim the bronze medal and finish with a 7-1 record after defeating Germany 80-78.

Opening with a 112-50 victory over Iran on Aug. 22, the U.S. was paced by Lonny Baxter, who notched a game high 27 points on 10-of-13 shooting. After opening a 58-30 halftime advantage, behind 19 points apiece from Juan Dixon and Melvin Ely the USA earned a 118-56 victory over South Africa on Aug. 23. Dixon scored 20 points to lead six players in double digits as the USA ran away with a 113-90 victory over Turkey on Aug. 24 to close preliminary play on top of Group B.

Playing in the quarterfinals medal round, the USA rolled over South American rivals Brazil 99-67 on Aug. 26 as Baxter, Dixon and Greer were credited with a combined 47 points and 14 steals. With the help of 21 points from Dixon and 20 from Mason the United States came back from a 20-14 first quarter deficit to earn a 91-62 win over previously unbeaten Great Britain on Aug. 27.

Behind a USA World University Games single game record 32 points from Owens, the USA ran away with a 128-97 victory over South Korea on Aug. 28 and advanced to the medal semifinals against also undefeated host China.

Facing a Chinese team that included players who would play in the 2004 Olympics, the U.S. fought back from an 11-point deficit late in the game but missed a pair of shots with less than 10 seconds to go and was edged by the host country 83-82 in the medal semifinal game on Aug. 30. The United States received a 24-point effort from Dixon, while China was led by Wang Zhizhi's 16 points and 11 rebounds, while 7-5 center Yao Ming had 12 and nine rebounds. The disappointing loss ended the USA's 46-game winning streak at the World University Games.

Not willing to go home empty handed, the U.S. rebounded to earn an 80-78 bronze medal win over Germany on Aug. 31. Dixon poured in 24 points and Barrett dropped a pair of free throws with 12.2 seconds to go to lead the U.S. squad past the Germans and onto the medal stand. Yugoslavia dominated China 101-61 for the gold medal.

The U.S. squad outscored its opponents by 30.0 points a game (102.9 ppg. to 72.9 ppg.), and the USA's potent offense saw six players average in double digits for scoring,

TWENTIETH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1999

Palma de Mallorca, Spain

July 3-12, 1999

Behind a balanced team effort, the 1999 USA Basketball Men's World University Games Team won the USA's sixth consecutive gold medal with a perfect 8-0 record in Palma de Mallorca, Spain. Host Spain upended Mexico 90-78 for the bronze medal.

Kenyon Martin led all USA players in scoring and rebounding, averaging 13.9 ppg. and 6.6 rpg. while Brendan Haywood averaged 10.9 ppg. and 6.3 rpg. and led the squad in blocked shots with 1.4 bpg. Pete Mickeal checked in as the team's third leading scorer, 9.1 ppg., and led the U.S. in steals, 3.3 spg.

Matt Santangelo broke the U.S. record for 3-point field goals made in a World University Games contest when he connected on 5-of-6 in the USA's victory against Greece.

Opening preliminary round play against South Korea, Kevin Freeman scored 18 points to lead the U.S. to a 96-77 victory. Paced by Chris Mihm's 19 points, every member of the U.S. team scored in a 97-58 victory over Nigeria. In its most lopsided victory, and backed by 20 points from Freeman, the U.S. dismantled the Czech Republic 102-43. Meeting also unbeaten Lithuania, the U.S. received 15 points from Mihm as it recorded a 97-88 victory to earn the top spot in its pool. Closing out preliminary play with a 91-74 win over Greece, the USA was led by Santangelo's 19 points on 7-of-9 shooting from the floor.

In the July 10 quarterfinals, despite spotting Canada a 45-33 halftime lead, the USA charged back for an impressive second half effort to claim a hard-fought 87-82 victory that assured the U.S. an appearance in the semifinals. Martin scored a team high 19 points and Haywood tallied 17 points.

The USA advanced into the gold medal contest with an impressive 88-80 victory against Spain on July 11. Martin led the USA in scoring with 22 points and 11 rebounds. Point guard Erick Barkley, starting in place of Scoonie Penn who missed the game with a stomach illness, totaled 19 points, six rebounds, and two steals.

The USA charged to an impressive 79-65 victory against Yugoslavia at on July 12 to win the '99 gold medal. Martin again led the Americans in scoring with 21 points and also hauled in a game high seven rebounds. For the second consecutive game, Penn was sidelined by a stomach illness, but Barkley filled in with seven points and 10 assists against just one turnover.

NINETEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1997

Trapani, Sicily, Italy

August 22-30, 1997

The 1997 USA Men's World University Games Team put on quite a display of strength as they toppled opponents by an average margin of victory of 44.0 points per contest and outrebounded opponents by a 21.4 rpg. margin, en route to a perfect 6-0 record and the gold medal in Sicily, Italy. The championship victory extended the USA's winning streak to 32 at the World University Games and marked the American's fifth consecutive gold medal.

The U.S. rolled to an early 3-0 record to finish at the top of Group B, averaging 106.0 ppg., while holding its first three opponents to a paltry 36.0 ppg. average.

In its first contest, the U.S. disposed of South Africa 110-32 as Ansu Sesay tallied 19 points and Loren Woods recorded 18 points and a USA World University Games record 17 rebounds. Facing Great Britain next, the Americans earned an 88-48 victory, backed by 16 points from the 5-7 Earl Boykins. Closing out preliminary play with a 120-28 trouncing of Hong Kong, Curtis Staples led the U.S. attack with 19 points.

Earning its 100th all-time victory at the World University Games, the USA defeated South Korea 94-64 in the quarterfinals. Trailing 10-4 with 16:09 left in the first period, Scott Padgett scored 10 points in a 17-3 run that put the USA in command 21-13. The U.S. never relinquished its lead as it cruised to the 94-64 victory. Boykins led five U.S. players in double figures with 18 points.

Backed by Boykins' 17 points and six assists, the USA drove past host Italy 67-51 in semifinal action. With the win, the U.S. advanced to its seventh straight World University Games gold medal contest.

In a game that saw 11 lead changes and five tied scores, the U.S. squad, behind a game high 23 points from Boykins, edged Canada 72-64 for the gold medal. With 3:41 left and Canada holding a 29-22 advantage, Boykins took over and scored nine straight points to put the U.S. in front 31-29. The U.S. closed out the half with a two-point, 35-33, lead.

Following six lead changes and one tie to open the second half, Bryce Drew sank a 3-pointer to knot the score at 48 apiece with 13:43 to go. Taking off on a 12-3 run, the USA jumped out in front 60-51 at 8:07 and went on to earn the 72-64 decision and the gold medal. Brazil defeated Italy 77-69 in the bronze medal contest.

EIGHTEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1995

Fukuoka, Japan

August 24 - September 2, 1995

In compiling a perfect 7-0 record and collecting the gold medal at the 1995 World University Games, the USA men left no question that it was the best and in fact made a very good argument for itself that it may be the best USA team ever to compete in the World University Games.

Winning its seven games by an impressive 38.6 points a game, Lon Kruger's USA squad averaged an eye-popping 109.3 points a game. Equally dominating defensively, the U.S. limited opponents to just 70.7 points a game, 40.7 percent shooting from the field, including 26.2 percent from 3-point range, while forcing 22.9 turnovers a game. The USA's strength did not rest in the play of any one individual, although there was no shortage of individual talent, it was the USA's depth of talent that was overwhelming.

Not expecting to open play until August 25, the U.S. learned at 11 p.m. on the 23rd that the preliminary pools and schedule had been redrawn and the U.S. would open the next afternoon facing Russia. If the schedule change had any affect on the U.S. it wasn't obvious as the U.S. stormed to 115-48 win as Ray Allen led the U.S. attack with 17 points, while Lorenzen Wright added 14 points. Great Britain's squad featured several players from American universities, but the U.S. was simply too much as the USA strolled to a 95-59 win as Kerry Kittles paced the attack with 20 points. The U.S. closed out preliminary pool play with a one-sided 118-75 win over Brazil as seven players, led by Allen's 16 points, scored in double digits.

Opening the quarterfinals facing Lithuania, the USA rolled to a 24-point win, 105-81, as Allen Iverson led the way with 21 points. Meeting a solid Czech Republic squad, the key to the USA's win was defense. Trailing the Czechs at half 46-43, the U.S. allowed the Czechs just seven points during the second half's first 16:28 and a total of 16 second half points as the U.S. rallied to take a 77-62 decision. Pacing the U.S. was Iverson with 14 points.

Meeting Canada in the semifinals with a trip to the gold medal game on the line, the USA scored the game's first 10 points and never looked back in a 114-89 victory. Iverson, Allen and Kittles paced the attack, scoring 26, 21 and 20 points, respectively.

Saving its best for last, the U.S., in an awesome display of basketball, outran previously unbeaten and host Japan to capture the gold with a decisive 141-81 victory. Scoring the most points ever in a World University Games championship game, while recording the sixth highest USA single game point output ever in a World University Games contest, seven USA players scored in double digits in the gold medal victory, led by Iverson's 26 points.

SEVENTEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1993

Buffalo, New York

July 8-17, 1993

Assembling some of college basketball's most promising talents, U.S. Air Force mentor Reggie Minton led the U.S. to a 7-0 record and the World University Games gold medal in 1993.

The USA opened the 22-team tournament with a 122-55 thrashing of Gabon. The USA's only problem versus Gabon was a uniform mix-up which delayed the start of the game for approximately an hour and forced the U.S. team to play the first half wearing blue tee-shirts with numbers in red tape on their backs. The mix-up had little effect on the U.S. as the Americans stormed to a 122-55 victory as Donald Williams scored 18 points. Two days later, the USA recorded a 107-59 pounding of Estonia. Michael Finley led the U.S. offensive charge with 17 points.

The USA cruised through the medal qualifying round posting victories over Ireland, 93-64, Italy, 103-73, and Croatia, 106-65. The U.S. crew used a balanced scoring attack that saw every player score in each of the three games. Richard Scott checked in as the USA's leading scorer with 21 versus Ireland, while Eric Piatkowski's 19 points took top honors against Italy, and Carlos Rogers tallied 20 points versus Croatia.

Meeting China in the semifinals, just as had been the case in five of the USA's first six games, the U.S. opened an early lead and cruised to the impressive 129-91 victory. The USA again received a balanced scoring effort as 11 of the 12 USA players scored, including six in double figures. Sharone Wright led the U.S. with 17 points, while Kentucky's star point guard Travis Ford, who missed the prior game because of a knee injury, added 16 points. The win bolstered the American's record to 6-0 and secured a position in the next day's gold medal tilt versus Canada.

The USA's perfect record and aspirations for a gold medal nearly came to an end as an inspired Canadian team, led by Steve Nash, forced the U.S. to mount a second-half comeback before it earned a 95-90 win. Controlling the entire first half, Canada led by 17 points, 41-24, with 3:48 to go in the first half, however, the U.S. cut the Canadian's lead to 12, 52-40, by halftime.

Trailing 59-50 with 16:43 to play, the U.S., behind five points from captain Damon Stoudamire, went on a 16-0 scoring run to regain the lead, 66-59 with 12:50 to play. The U.S. went on to lead by as many as 10 points, but Canada rallied to cut the lead to one 87-86 with 2:48 to play. However, an Ed O'Bannon basket was followed by a jumper from Finley and the U.S. was back in front by five, 91-86. Canada cut the lead to three, 91-88 with 1:48 to play, but Stoudamire countered with a basket with 1:21 left to push the U.S. lead back to five and the USA fought off the Canadians from there for the 95-90 victory and the gold medal.

SIXTEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1991

Sheffield, England

July 15-24, 1991

The 1991 USA World University Games roster read like a who's who of collegiate basketball for 1991. Even the coaching staff, headed by Seton Hall's P. J. Carlesimo, ranked among the collegiate arena's finest. The top-notch U.S. crew did not disappoint as the USA rolled to the gold with an unblemished 6-0 record, its second consecutive gold and its eighth gold in 12 World University Games tries.

Opening pool play facing an overmatched team from Ireland, coach Carlesimo's gang cruised to an easy 103-57 victory. The American offensive attack relied on balance as 10 of the squad's 12 members scored, including six in double digits, led by 6'4" Hubert Davis' 25 points. Facing Finland one night later, the U.S. started slowly but finished strong en route to a convincing 141-66 victory. University of Kansas' standout Adonis Jordan led all scorers with 26 points, hitting three of four 3-point field goal tries.

The 2-0 USA squad completed pool play facing 2-0 Czechoslovakia. Relying on its inside strength, the U.S. took control early and sailed to a 116-74 win. 6'11" Ervin Johnson of the University of New Orleans finished the victory with a game high 23 points and 11 rebounds.

The USA's perfect record and objective of capturing the gold almost came to an end when an inspired Spanish team pushed the Americans to the brink of a loss before the U.S. prevailed 74-71. Rodney Rogers led the U.S. scoring campaign with 14 points on 7-of-12 shooting, while Davis added 12 points.

Carrying a 4-0 record into the semifinals, Carlesimo's squad faced once beaten Israel for the right to advance to the gold medal contest. Behind an aggressive defense that frustrated Israel's offense into 31.8 percent (21-66) shooting from the floor and 18 turnovers, the Americans stormed to an 89-59 victory. Davis again paced the USA scoring effort with 19 points.

Cruising to the gold medal game, the expected USA-USSR match-up never materialized after Canada upset the Soviets 74-70 in the semifinals. Facing the 5-0 Canadians, the Americans wasted no time in establishing their offense and the U.S. squad went on to a lopsided 96-56 victory. Calbert Cheaney and Davis tallied 14 points apiece, while Rogers, George Lynch and Eric Anderson added 12, 11, and 10, respectively.

Davis finished the USA's gold medal hunt as the team's leading scorer, averaging 17.8 ppg., while shooting .594 from the field and a sizzling .567 (17-30 3pt FGs) from 3-point range. Rogers and Cheaney finished the competition scoring 12.3 ppg. and 11.0 ppg., respectively, while the USA averaged 103.2 ppg., and allowed just 63.8 ppg.

FIFTEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1989

Duisburg, West Germany

August 22-30, 1989

The USA basketball team, directed by coach Gene Keady of Purdue University (IN), traveled to Duisburg, West Germany, aiming to win the gold medal. Having taken the silver in the 1987 Pan Am Games, and the bronze in the 1988 Olympics, the USA was looking to re-establish its basketball dominance.

The U.S. would accomplish this goal by compiling a 6-0 record and winning the gold at the 1989 World University Games. Keady's squad, which scored over 100 points in five of six games, finished the competition averaging 109.5 ppg., and finished with an average margin of victory of 31.2 points a game.

Opening with a key matchup against Brazil in the first round of pool play, the Americans got a measure of revenge for Brazil's 1987 upset of the U.S. in the Pan American finals by recording a one-sided 126-93 victory. 6'9" Larry Johnson, of Odessa Junior College (TX) as well as a future UNLV and NBA standout, scored 25 points in the U.S. win over Brazil, and 6'9" Mark Randall from Kansas scored 19 points in just over seven minutes of playing time to assist the American team to the win.

The following day, Johnson again led the team with 26 points as the U.S. rolled past Great Britain, 108-67. Karl Brown of Georgia Tech led the British team with 19 points. The USA finished its pool play with a 3-0 record after bettering Poland, 128-75, as Johnson dominated inside with 21 points and 13 rebounds. After recording a 104-79 win over Israel and a 103-76 win over West Germany in the semifinals, the United States earned a spot in the finals against the Soviet Union.

The USA trailed the Soviets by eight mid-way through the first half before rallying to post a seven-point halftime lead, 47-40. Led by Stephen Thompson's eight points, the USA went on a 14-4 run during the opening minutes of the second half and sailed on from there to knock off the Soviets 88-80 and capture the gold medal.

The victory gave the USA the gold medal for the first time since 1981. The Soviets returned home with the silver medal, while the Federal Republic of Germany took the bronze medal.

The USA team was led offensively by Syracuse University (NY) star Thompson who averaged 19.8 ppg. Also making strong contributions were Johnson, 16.3 ppg. and 11.0 rpg., and his future UNLV teammate Stacey Augmon, 11.0 ppg., as well as Iowa's Matt Bullard 10.5 ppg.

FOURTEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1987

Zagreb, Yugoslavia

July 6-31, 1987

After capturing the silver medal in 1985, the 1987 USA World University Games team had hopes of returning the USA ways to gold. Guided by Duke University's (NC) Mike Krzyzewski, and featuring promising basketball talents like Sean Elliott, Danny Ferry, Billy King and Mitch Richmond, to name a few, the USA was considered one of several contenders for the World University Games gold medal in Zagreb, Yugoslavia.

However, the United States did not win the gold as Yugoslavia managed to slip past the Americans in the finals, but the U.S. put forth an impressive effort and finished 7-1 and in possession of the silver medal.

Opening the 1987 Games facing Austria, the U.S. squad behind 16-point efforts from Mark Bryant and Troy Lewis marched to a 105-47 win. Belgium fell two days later 98-57 and Perry McDonald led the U.S. attack with 18 points.

Behind Ferry's 20 points and 11 rebounds, the USA narrowly escaped an upset by Spain with an 83-82 victory. Led by Lewis' 13 points, six U.S. players scored in double digits as the U.S. disposed of stubborn Brazil 88-81 and pushed its record to 4-0.

Richmond accounted for a team high 13 points and 11 of the 12 USA players scored in a 69-57 victory over Czechoslovakia. Canada challenged the U.S. men all the way, but the U.S. prevailed 93-83 thanks to B.J. Armstrong's 15 points and 13 more from Lewis and Richmond. Standing 6-0 and in need of a win over Cuba if the U.S. was to earn a shot at the gold medal, Richmond again led the U.S. attack scoring 19 points while McDonald added 18 as the U.S. dropped Cuba 88-70.

Facing also unbeaten Yugoslavia in the gold medal game, who was playing in front of its home crowd, the U.S. fell behind early and by half Yugoslavia was in control 50-38. Despite the efforts of Richmond, who finished with 19 points, Yugoslavia went on to hand the Americans a 100-85 loss. Yugoslavia's Drazen Petrovic, who would go on to NBA stardom, finished with a game high 35 points. Yugoslavia shot a blistering 61.5 percent from the field, while the U.S. shot 49.2 percent from the floor and just 47.6 percent (10-21FTs) from the foul line. In the bronze medal game, Spain narrowly defeated Cuba 80-79.

THIRTEENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1985

Kobe, Japan

July 24 - August 4, 1985

The 1985 USA World University Games team went to Kobe, Japan, looking to improve on the USA's bronze medal finish in 1983. Compiling a 5-1 record and earning the silver medal, the U.S. once again came very close to capturing the gold.

Under the direction of University of South Florida mentor Lee Rose, the young American squad was once again a talented lot that featured the likes of Missouri's 6'7" Derrick Chievous, Auburn's 6'8" Chuck Person, 6'7" University of Miami of Ohio's Ron Harper, and 6'8" Billy Thompson of the University of Louisville.

Opening against Jordan, the U.S. squad steamrolled to a 110-point victory, drubbing Jordan 140-30 as 10 of the 12 U.S. players scored in double digits. The U.S. demolished the People's Republic of Korea next, scoring a 100-point win, 147-47, as all 12 USA men scored and nine reached double figures. Behind Person's 11-19 field goal shooting and 25 points, the U.S. finished the preliminary round with an impressive 93-88 victory over the Soviet Union.

Meeting host Japan in the quarterfinals, the Americans strolled to a 123-68 win as Chievous scored 27 points and Person added 21 in the victory. Bulgaria was no match for the U.S. in the semifinals as the U.S. got out quick and cruised to a 94-66 win with Chievous recording a team high 16 points.

Advancing to the gold medal game, the USA faced the Soviet Union for the second time. In a tightly played contest in which neither team could gain an advantage, the Soviet's Valdemaras Khomitchus, who finished with a game high 30 points, hit a 21-foot three-pointer with three seconds remaining to give the Soviets a 96-93 victory and the gold medal. The USA was paced by Thompson's 25 points and 23 more from Harper. Canada captured the bronze medal by edging Bulgaria 96-95.

TWELFTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1983

Edmonton, Canada

July 1-11, 1983

Having captured four straight gold medals in the World University Games, the 1983 USA team traveled north to Edmonton, Canada, looking to make it five in a row. But it was not to be as coach Norm Stewart and the rest of his USA team returned home with the bronze medal.

Featuring a team loaded with talented players like 6'6" Charles Barkley (Auburn), 6'9" Karl Malone (Louisiana Tech), 6'1" Johnny Dawkins (Duke), and 6'9" Ed Pinckney (Villanova), the USA team lost once and consequently ended up with the bronze medal and a 6-1 record.

Opening against Peru, the U.S., behind 23 points from Devin Durrant, scored a one-sided 134-25 win. Erupting for 156 points against Lebanon, the second most points ever scored by any USA men's team in a major international tournament, Jay Humphries led the U.S. to its 156-75 win with 31 points. For the third consecutive game, the U.S. surpassed the 100-point barrier, this time dropping the Ivory Coast 104-65 as Malone tossed in 19 points and grabbed eight rebounds.

Behind Dawkins' nearly perfect night, seven of eight from the field and one for one from the free throw line for a team high 15 points, Stewart's Americans stormed past Australia 100-52. Cuba offered the Americans their first test of the Games as the U.S. managed a 99-84 win, raising its record to 5-0 and advancing to the semifinals.

Facing host Canada for the right to advance to the gold medal contest, the U.S. was stunned by the Canadians 85-77. While the U.S. shot 50 percent from the field (31-62 FGs), the Canadians shot just 40.5 percent (28-69 FGs) from the floor and connected on 29 of 40 free throws. Eric Turner scored 22 points and Pinckney contributed 19 more in the loss.

Facing Cuba in the bronze medal game, the U.S. regrouped and easily claimed a 119-91 victory as Durrant and Malone tallied 25 and 24 points each, while Pinckney added 18 points and a team high 11 rebounds.

Canada captured the gold with an 83-68 victory over silver medalist Yugoslavia.

The '83 USA team averaged 112.7 points a game and featured six players averaging in double figures. Pinckney led the U.S. contingent averaging 13.7 ppg., while Turner and Malone averaged 12.3 ppg. and 12.0 ppg., respectively.

ELEVENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1981

Bucharest, Romania

July 15-29, 1981

Bringing home the gold medal in five of the last six World University Games, 1981 USA head coach Tom Davis of Boston College (MA) took an eager American squad to Bucharest, Romania, looking to add to the USA's gold medal collection. The team would not leave disappointed, winning the gold medal and finishing with a 7-1 record.

Opening against Senegal, Boston College standout John Bagley scored 18 to lift the U.S. to an easy 91-35 win. South Korea fell next to the U.S., losing 104-70 as Bagley dumped in 22 points and Fred Roberts added 19. Davis' USA squad easily overpowered Greece, 110-68, as Howard Carter scored 21. The USA's three-game win streak came to a halt as Canada upended the Americans 78-76 despite 16 points from Carter.

In no position to suffer a second loss, the U.S. faced the Soviet Union in a must-win game. The Soviets and U.S. men played to a 93-93 deadlock at the end of regulation, and were still tied 101-101 at the end of the first overtime. In the second overtime, the U.S. finally managed to claw out a 113-107 victory to keep its gold medal hopes alive. Carter finished with 28 points and John Pinone added 25 in the crucial victory.

The U.S. won its next two games easily, dropping Mexico 88-58, then host Romania 91-70 to advance into the finals. In front of a standing room only gold medal game crowd, the Americans again faced the Soviets, however, this time the U.S. needed only regulation time to earn the 91-87 victory. The Americans led by seven with 3:59 remaining when 6'8" Kevin Magee, who finished with 27 points, fouled out. Within a minute, the USA's lead was down to one point, 86-85. But steals and layups by Sidney Lowe and Bagley iced the game and sealed the win. In addition to Magee's 27 points, the U.S. cause was aided by Carter and Bagley who added 17 and 16 points, respectively.

Bagley and Carter led the U.S. scoring attack, both averaging 14.8 ppg. Magee contributed 14.6 ppg. and a team leading 7.1 rpg., while John Pinone averaged 12.9 ppg. and Kevin Boyle averaged 10.0 ppg. All told, the U.S. finished averaging 95.8 ppg.

TENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1979

*Mexico City, Mexico
September 2-13, 1979*

In 1979, the USA men headed south of the border to Mexico City, Mexico, with gold on their minds. Coached by Ken Anderson of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, the USA arrived in Mexico looking for its third straight World University Games gold medal. The Americans returned home with a 7-1 record and the gold medal.

Opening the preliminary round in impressive fashion, the USA roared past Jordan by 110 points, 144-34, then crushed Saudi Arabia 147-25. Scoring a USA record 173 points, the most points ever scored by a USA team in a major international tournament, Sudan was demolished 173-14. The U.S. team in its first three one-sided wins averaged 132.3 ppg. while only allowing 24.3 ppg. for an amazing average margin of victory of 108 points.

However, the U.S. was derailed as a 19-point advantage slipped through its hands and Yugoslavia stormed back to capture a 79-73 victory. Needing to win its three remaining games if the gold medal dream was to be again realized, the USA did just that as future NBA all-star Andrew Toney lead the U.S. to an 86-76 win over Canada, a 138-79 romp past Bulgaria and a semifinal round victory over Mexico 75-67.

Advancing to the gold medal game and a rematch against Yugoslavia, the U.S. was looking to avenge its earlier loss to the Yugoslavs. The Americans came out gunning from the start and by half had a 42-30 edge. Remembering only too well Yugoslavia's comeback in the earlier contest, the USA kept the pressure going and behind Toney's 22 points and 12 more from future Boston Celtic great Kevin McHale, cruised on to an 88-70 win for the 1979 gold medal.

While the U.S. captured the gold and Yugoslavia earned the silver, Cuba upended host Mexico 71-57 to win the bronze medal.

NINTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1977

Sofia, Bulgaria
August 17-31, 1977

University of Louisville (Ky.) head coach Denny Crum served as head coach of the 1977 USA team that would travel to Sofia, Bulgaria, seeking to defend the USA's 1973 gold medal. USA teams had won gold medals in three of the first four World University Games.

The USA had a young and very talented team. 6'4" Darrell Griffith (Louisville), 6'4" Freeman Williams (Portland State), 6'4" Sidney Moncrief (Arkansas), and 6'9" Larry Bird (Indiana State) were just some of the players who helped lead the Americans to a sparkling 8-0 record and the gold medal.

The USA took its first three games easily, winning by an average margin of 64.3 ppg. Behind 20 points from Griffith, the USA opened with a 136-57 romp over Belgium, then Griffith scored 22 in a U.S. 131-46 win over Kuwait. The U.S. defeated Poland 91-62 as 6'6" Calvin Natt led the U.S. attack with 16 points.

Next facing the gold medal co-favorite Soviet Union, the USA's offense continued to surge and the Americans handed the Soviets a 129-96 setback in front of a capacity crowd of 2,000.

The U.S. never trailed in the contest and Griffith led the U.S. charge with 25 points.

Tempers flared in the USA - Cuba matchup. Tied 46-46 with 18 minutes remaining in the game, benches emptied and fighting broke out in front of the U.S. bench. Bulgarian police stepped in and regained order, and when the game resumed, the U.S. stormed on to a 94-78 victory. Natt led the U.S. with 24 points and Griffith added 21. With Williams scoring 19 points and Griffith adding 15, the U.S. maintained its perfect record by defeating Brazil 103-81. Downing Czechoslovakia 85-69, the U.S. earned the right to play in the championship game. Natt and Walter Jordan accounted for 19 points each in the win.

Facing the Soviet Union in the gold medal contest, only the score would be different in the second USA-USSR contest as the U.S. sailed to an impressive 87-68 victory and the gold medal. Moncrief led the USA attack with 16 points, while Williams and Bird each added 14 points. Czechoslovakia, by virtue of its 74-67 victory over Canada, earned the bronze medal.

EIGHTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1973

Moscow, Soviet Union

August 16-24, 1973

Coming off the controversial silver medal finish at the 1972 Olympics, and a silver medal in the 1970 World University Games, the 1973 U.S. World University Games team was striving to return the USA to its golden ways.

Coached by Ed Badger of Wilbur Wright College (Ill.), the USA team boasted some of the finest young talent in the world including 6'9" Alvin Adams (Oklahoma), 6'9" Marvin "Bad News" Barnes (Providence), 6'3" Quinn Buckner (Indiana), 6'10" Mitch Kupchak (North Carolina), 6'8" Maurice Lucas (Marquette), and 6'4" David Thompson (North Carolina State).

Featuring a high octane offense that averaged 126.0 points a game in its first five games and finished the competition averaging 108.6 ppg., the USA limited its opponents to just 55.5 ppg.

The United States opened the '73 WUGs with a 123-74 thrashing of Great Britain as Branes tossed in 24 and Burleson added 14 rebounds. Burleson accounted for 24 points and 21 rebounds in the USA's 120-31 pounding of Sweden, then the following night, Burleson recorded 24 points and 14 rebounds as the Americans whipped Portugal 140-34.

Matched in quarterfinals pool play against France,

Czechoslovakia and Great Britain, the USA was 1-0 in quarterfinals play without even playing a game by virtue of the team's preliminary round win over Great Britain which carried over into the quarterfinals standings. Behind 27 points from Barnes, the USA easily handled France 137-43, then, facing 4-0 Czechoslovakia, Barnes posted 19 points and 19 rebounds as the U.S. cruised to a convincing 110-59 victory.

Advancing to the medal round, Thompson erupted for 34 points as the Americans rolled over Cuba 98-76. Facing 7-0 Brazil in the semifinals, Thompson scored 17 points and Lucas snagged 17 rebounds as the U.S. slipped past Brazil 66-60.

The Americans faced the unbeaten host country Soviet Union in the finals, and despite playing in front of a partisan Soviet crowd estimated at 14,800, Thompson finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds to help lead the USA to a 75-67 victory and the gold medal.

Capturing its first gold medal since the 1967 Games, the USA finished with a perfect 9-0 record, while the Soviets earned the silver, and Brazil captured the bronze after slipping past Canada 80-79.

SEVENTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1970

Turin, Italy

August 25 - September 7, 1970

USA teams in the previous two World University Games had compiled an impressive 15-0 record while claiming both gold medals. 1970 would be different as the USA team not only suffered its first loss in World University Games competition, but also returned home without the gold medal for the first time.

Head coach Bob Davis of Georgetown College (Ky.) directed the USA to an 8-1 record and the silver medal. The U.S. squad was led by 7'0" Jim McDaniels (Western Kentucky), 6'7" George McGinnis (Indiana) and 6'3" John Mengelt (Auburn) who averaged 17.9 ppg., 16.6 ppg. and 15.1 ppg., respectively.

The USA won its first three games by an average margin of 58.0 points. Defeating Denmark 97-32, Jim Cleamons led the Americans with 20 points. France fell to the U.S. 114-65 as McDaniels poured in 29 points, then Senegal was crushed 101-41 in a game that saw Ken Davis score 16 points, while Cliff Meeley and Bob Ford accounted for 15 and 14 points, respectively.

Facing a fast and aggressive Cuban team, the U.S. fell behind early, but by the half had managed a slim 45-41 lead. Foul trouble sealed Cuba's fate as five players fouled out and the U.S. went on to post a 90-80 victory. McDaniels led the U.S. effort with 24 points and Mengelt chipped in 21, while McGinnis notched 19. Facing Brazil, the U.S. took a 42-32 lead into the locker room at half, then blew it open in the second half and cruised to a 95-56 win as McGinnis led the team with 23 points. Italy proved no match for the U.S. squad as the Americans rolled to a 95-56 victory behind 21 points from McGinnis.

Advancing to the round-robin finals, the U.S. again faced Cuba and again struggled before earning the win. Tied 44-all at half, the United States' offense took control in the second half and the Americans emerged on the winning side of an 87-73 decision. McDaniels scored 27 points and Meeley accounted for 20.

The USA's match-up with Yugoslavia seemed to be a re-run of the previous day's game. At half, the Americans found themselves tied at 44, but again the USA rallied in the second half and behind McGinnis' 25 points, the U.S. posted a 93-81 victory.

Facing the Soviets in a battle for the gold, the U.S. trailed at half for the first time of the tourney, 31-29. Despite mounting a second half rally and receiving 23 points from McDaniels and 17 more from McGinnis, the American efforts came up short 78-71. Cuba edged Yugoslavia 66-65 to capture the bronze medal.

SIXTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1967

Tokyo, Japan

August 28 - September 3, 1967

In 1967, the USA men's team journeyed to Tokyo, Japan, looking to defend its 1965 World University Games gold medal. The strong USA team, coached by Michigan State mentor John Benington, featured five players from the 1967 USA Pan American Games squad that had captured the gold earlier in Canada.

The U.S. efforts were aided in the hunt for the gold by a boycott by all communist countries which left the 1967 field significantly weakened. Regardless, the USA men compiled a 7-0 record and in the process earned the United States' second World University Games basketball gold medal.

The USA had little trouble capturing its second straight gold medal, winning its seven games by an average margin of 60.7 points. The Americans for the first time averaged over 100 points a game as the U.S. scored 105.6 points a game on offense, while allowing just 44.9 points on defense.

Mike Silliman, captain of the team, led the USA's balanced scoring attack averaging 15.1 ppg. The USA's capturing of the gold was truly a team effort as every member of the squad scored in six out of the seven games played.

The USA opened with a 79-53 victory over the Philippines, a game that would eventually prove to be the USA's closest decision of the tourney, as Silliman scored a team-high 23 points. The USA followed up with a 108-48 win over Belgium and Silliman again led the U.S. with 28 points.

Thailand fell to the American delegation 120-46 as 6'3" Jo Jo White led the U.S. offensive assault with 18 points. The Americans manhandled Hong Kong as Butch Beard poured in 26 points in the 135-28 thrashing. Wes Unseld scored 16 in a 92-63 romp over South Korea, and Larry Miller dumped in 20 points to help lift the U.S. to a 114-38 crushing of Japan.

With its perfect 6-0 record on the line, the USA advanced to the gold medal game against Brazil. Behind Unseld's 19 points, the U.S. handily defeated Brazil 91-38. Beard and Silliman chipped in 13 points apiece in the American effort.

With the final triumph, the U.S. was 15-0 and two-for-two in the World University Games. South Korea ended the '67 tournament with the silver and Brazil returned home with the bronze medal.

FIFTH WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES -- 1965

Budapest, Hungary

August 20-29, 1965

The 1965 World University Games, held in Budapest, Hungary, marked the first time the USA had competed in the event, and the USA would not waste any time making its presence known. The U.S. had not competed in the World University Games for the first nine years because of political concerns.

Led by head coach John Kundla of the University of Minnesota, the Americans finished their first World University Games competition in possession of a perfect 8-0 record and the gold medal.

While 6'5" Bill Bradley (Princeton University) was the team captain and a member of the USA gold medal 1964 Olympic team, the U.S. team was led offensively by 6'5" Lou Hudson (University of Minnesota), 6'8" Fred Hetzel (Davidson College) and Bradley. Hudson finished as the team's high scorer averaging 17.3 ppg, Hetzel added 12.9 ppg, and Bradley averaged 12.4 ppg.

All of the men's basketball competition was scheduled to be played outdoors and the U.S. squad adjusted quickly to the conditions. Opening the competition with an impressive 89-52 win over Czechoslovakia, the U.S. team followed that with a strong 85-37 victory against Italy. The Federal Republic of Germany was handed a 98-52 loss as Hudson again accounted for 20 points, and Romania battled with the United States in a game the Americans won 69-60 as Bradley led all scorers with 22 points.

The U.S. contingent broke the centennial scoring mark in a 108-53 win over Bulgaria as Hudson scored 22. Playing what was termed by coach Kundla as their best defensive game of the competition, the American men rolled over the Soviets 81-38 as six U.S. players scored in double digits. France was little problem in the semifinals as the USA claimed an 83-44 victory and Hudson scored a tournament high 27 points.

Facing the Soviet Union in the finals, the game was moved indoors after being delayed by rain. The U.S., behind 19 points from Bradley and 19 more from Hudson, recorded a 71-60 win, giving the USA its first World University Games gold medal. The Soviets won the silver medal and Hungary, cheered on by its home fans, collected the bronze medal.

USA Basketball was organized in 1974 and known as the Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America (ABAUSA). The name change to USA Basketball occurred Oct. 12, 1989, shortly after FIBA modified its rules to allow professional basketball players to participate in international competitions. USA Basketball then admitted the Basketball men's and women's Youth Development Festivals, USA Basketball trials and USA teams.

Since 2008, USA Basketball men's and women's teams have compiled a sterling 96-2 win-loss record in FIBA or FIBA Americas competitions. USA teams are the current men's and women's champions in the Olympics, FIBA World Championships; U19 and U17 FIBA World Championships; and U18 and U16 FIBA Americas championships.

USA Basketball currently ranks No. 1 in all five of FIBA's world ranking categories, including combined, men's, women's, boys and girls.

Competitions in which USA teams regularly compete include the Olympics, FIBA World Championships, FIBA Americas Championships, Pan American Games, World University Games, FIBA U19 and U17 World Championships, FIBA Americas U18 and U16 championships and the Nike Hoop Summit.

USA Basketball also sanctions U.S. basketball team tours of foreign countries and foreign basketball team tours of the U.S., as well as oversees the certification of FIBA and USA Basketball officials and the assignment of those officials to international competitions, and the licensing of players to play professionally overseas.

A brief synopsis of the various competitions in which USA Basketball teams participate includes:

Olympic Games

Men's and women's Olympic basketball competition is held every four years (2012, 2016, etc.). The USA captured double gold at the 2008 Beijing Olympics with both the men's and women's teams compiling 8-0 records. The USA men have captured the gold in 13 of the 16 Olympics they have competed in and compiled an incredible 122-5 record. The USA women have earned the gold in six of the past seven Olympics, including four consecutive, and boast of a sterling 50-3 record. The 2012 Summer Olympic Games will be held July 27-August 12 in London, England.

FIBA World Championships

FIBA holds World Championships at the senior level every four years (2014, 2018, etc.). Unlike the Olympics when 12 teams participate, 24 countries compete in the World Championship for Men and 16 teams participate in the World Championship for Women. The World Championship title is considered as prestigious as the Olympic title. Sweeping double-gold in 2010, the USA men finished 9-0 to capture the gold medal at the 2010 World Championship in Turkey, while the USA women also claimed gold with an 9-0 record in World Championship play in the Czech Republic.

USA coach Geno Auriemma led the Americans to a 9-0 mark and the gold medal at the 2010 FIBA World Championship for Women in the Czech Republic.

Pan American Games

Started in 1951 for men and 1955 for women, the Pan American Games are held every four years (2011, 2015, etc.) in the year preceding the Olympics. Countries from FIBA Americas are eligible to compete. The USA men have an impressive 84-13 overall record, winning eight of a possible 15 gold medals, while the USA women have won seven of 13 gold medals, including 2007, and a 72-12 record. The 2011 Pan American Games is slated for Oct. 13-30, in Guadalajara, Mexico.

World University Games

The World University Games are held for men and women every two years (2011, 2013, etc.), only current university student-athletes or recent graduates are eligible. The USA men in 19 appearances have collected 13 gold, three silver and three bronze medals, and the women in 15 appearances have won seven gold, six silver and one bronze medal. The 2011 World University Games are scheduled for Shenzhen, China.

U19 / U18 Championships

USA Basketball also fields men's and women's national teams for players 19-years-old or younger. FIBA now holds U19 World Championships every two years (2011, 2013, etc.). In 2009 the USA women finished 8-1 to capture gold, the USA men compiled a perfect 9-0 record to win gold. USA Basketball also fields teams featuring players 18-years-old or younger for FIBA Americas Zone U18 qualifying tournaments.

U17 / U16 Championships

FIBA initiated in 2010 the U17 World Championships for players 17-years-old or younger and now holds the event every two years (2012, 2014, etc.). In 2010 USA Basketball men's and women's teams both returned home with gold medals. USA Basketball also selects national teams featuring players 16-years-old or younger for FIBA Americas Zone U16 qualifying tournaments that will be held in 2011, 2013, etc.

Nike Hoop Summit

The Nike Hoop Summit is the country's premiere annual basketball game featuring America's top male high school aged players taking on a World Select Team comprised of top players 19-years-old or younger from around the world. Played each April, the USA enjoys a 11-3 series lead. First contested in 1995, the 2012 Nike Hoop Summit will be played on April 7 at the Rose Garden in Portland, Oregon.
